

“Mama Bear Apologetics”

Chapter 2

- III. Chapter 2 - How to Be a Mama Bear: A mama bear does whatever it takes to protect her children, both physically and spiritually. A mama bear isn't necessarily a mom. She is any woman who recognizes that children in the church need guidance and support.
 - A. “We may not want to jump into the deep end of theology and apologetics, but we will lest we see our kids dragged down by the rushing rapids of bad ideas.” (pg 36)
 - B. Key Traits of Mama Bears (pgs 40-43)
 - 1. Honesty
 - 2. Humility
 - 3. Humor
 - 4. Heroism
 - C. Getting Started (pgs 42-44)
 - 1. Know Your Bible - Personal Relationship
 - 2. Resources
 - 3. Family Study Time - Model Relationship
 - 4. Support System
 - “As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another.”
 - Proverbs 27:17
 - 5. Practice
 - a. Sharing
 - b. Asking Questions