"Mama Bear Apologetics"

Discussion Questions

June 7

1. What made you choose to read this book? Who do you have in mind when you think about sharing these things you are learning?
2. What are some tough questions that you have heard about the faith that you can start researching?
3. Looking at the 4 "H" attributes of a Mama Bear (pg. 40-42):
Honesty, Humility, Humor, Heroism
Which characteristic comes most easily to you? Which is the hardest, and why?
4. Discernment means both affirming the good and rejecting the bad. What are some examples of things in pop culture that polarize people? Have you ever completely disagreed with someone about something you thought was "bad"? Pick something to discuss (such as a TV show, a movie, a book, political view, or way of thinking), and talk about the good and the bad. What good can be swallowed? What needs to be spit out?
5. What did you learn in these chapters that you will put into practice moving forward?
